CASE NO: C-1-00-393

JUDGE BECKWITH

MAGISTRATE JUDGE BLACK

CLERK'S NOTICE OF GARNISHMENT

You are hereby notified that a garnishment of the nonexempt property (including nonexempt disposable earnings) is being taken by the United States of America which has a judgment in Case No. C-1-00-393 in the United States District Court for the SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO, WESTERN DIVISION, in the sum of $4,207.00 plus accrued interest for monies owed the United States. As of October 6, 2004 a balance of $429.20 remains outstanding.

In addition, you are hereby notified that there are exemptions under the law which may protect some of the property from being taken by the Government if Ronald L. Reynolds can show that the exemptions apply. Attached to this Notice is a Claim for Exemption Form which summarizes the major exemptions which apply in most situations in the State of Ohio. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §3014, an individual debtor may elect to exempt the following property:

EITHER

1. Property specified under section 522(d) of Title 11 of the United States Code - the types of property you may elect to exempt under 11 U.S.C. § 522(d) are listed on the attached Claim for Exemption Form;

eynolds can show
tion Form which Ohio. Pursuant to rty:

OR, IN THE ALTERNATIVE,

- 2 (A) Any property that is exempt under Federal law (other than the property set forth in paragraph (1) above), or State, or local law, if such law was applicable on the date of filing the Application for Writ of Continuing Garnishment. The applicable law regarding exemptions is the law at the place in which your domicile has been located for 180 days immediately preceding the date of the filing of such application, or for a longer portion of such 180-day period than in any other place. (A list of the property available as an exemption is contained in the attached Claim for Exemption Form); and,
- 2 (B) Any interest in property in which you had, immediately before filing of such application, an interest as a tenant by entirety or joint tenant. If you are electing this type of property, mark the appropriate space on the Claim for Exemption Form.

If you are Ronald L. Reynolds, you have a right to ask the court to return your property to you if you think the property the Government is taking qualifies under one of the specified exemptions or if you think you do not owe the money to the Government that it says you do.

If you are Ronald L. Reynolds, and you want a hearing, you must notify the court within 20 days after receipt of the notice. Your request must be in writing, and either mail it or deliver it in person to the Clerk of the Court at:

Clerk U.S. District Court
U.S. Postoffice & Courthouse,
Rm #326
Cincinnati, OH 45202

If you wish, you may request the hearing by checking the appropriate space on the Defendant's Request for Garnishment Hearing form attached to this notice and mailing or delivering your request form to the Clerk of the Court.

You must also send a copy of your request to the government in care of :

Deborah F. Sanders
Assistant United States Attorney
Southern District of Ohio
303 Marconi Boulevard, Suite 200
Columbus, Ohio 43215-2401

so that the Government will know that you want a hearing. The hearing will take place within 5 days after the Clerk receives your request, if you ask for it to take place that quickly, or as soon after that as possible.

At the hearing you may explain to the judge why you believe the property (including nonexempt disposable earnings) the Government has taken is exempt or why you do not owe the money to the Government.

If you think you live outside the Federal judicial district in which the court is located, you may request, not later than 20 days after you receive this notice, that this proceeding be transferred by the court to the Federal judicial district in which you reside. You must make your request in writing, and either mail it or deliver it in person to the Clerk of the Court at:

Clerk U.S. District Court
U.S. Postoffice & Courthouse, Rm #326
Cincinnati, OH 45202

You must also send a copy of your request to the Government in care of:

Deborah F. Sanders
Assistant United States Attorney
Southern District of Ohio
303 Marconi Boulevard, Suite 200
Columbus, Ohio 43215-2401

so that the Government will know that you want the proceedings to be transferred.

Be sure to keep a copy of this notice for your own records. If you have any questions about your rights or about this procedure, you should contact a lawyer, an office of public legal assistance, or the Clerk of the Court. The clerk is not permitted to give legal advice, but can refer you to other sources of information.
